Mr. and Mrs. Mimke Muenink of Hondo, and Mrs. Ira Schmidt and an auto party that left last Sunday morning for Fort Worth and Dallas on a visit. They plan to be gone some ten days.

After a few days rest, old Jupiter Pluvius got back on the job just before day Monday morning, a total of 1.60 inches being the result of his effort. As the weather cleared off during the morning but little if any damage was done to the oat crop now being harvested, while the rain will insure at least a partial corn crop. With another rain in the next ten or twelve days a heavy corn crop will be made and the less favored sections of the State can rest easy as Medina County will continue to feed them for another year or so.

Chas. Smith, with possibly several aliases, was arrested last Friday afternoon. He was making a house to house canvass, claiming to be a knife, scissors, lawn mowers and hoe grinder, which of course was all right, but as he alternated his time while going from one place to another by vociferous swearing and singing, he gave several ladies a first class scare, they believing he was crazy. After spending one night in jail he promised "to beat it" if released, which promise he immediately carried into effect after being given his liberty, and the last heard of him he was camped near Castroville. He was probably more of a crank than crazy.

April, 1924, will long be remembered as one of the wettest Aprils in the history of the county. The first of the week was ushered in by a precipitation of 1.60 inches. When the sun came out bright and clear after Monday's rain everyone hoped the rain would cease for eight or ten days, but their hopes were soon dispelled. Clouds again appeared and intermittent showers up to Friday morning had increased the fall up to 2.32 inches. These rains have insured a corn crop, but the long drawn out cloudy weather is playing havoc with the cotton crop, which is suffering for the want of hot sunshine. The web-worms are infesting the cotton, and unless we have hot sunshine soon serious damage will result. These rains, too, are interfering with the harvesting of the oat crop—one of the best that has been produced in this section in years. For once, in the history of Medina County the farmers are longing for dry weather.

The committee was shown every courtesy by the chief of San Antonio Fire Department, including some practical demonstrations.

Felix Batot will soon contest the fistic reputation of Jack Dempsey. Enroute to D'Hanis one afternoon this week he found his way blocked by a fellow he did not know, he told him he could not pass until he pulled the fellows truck out of a mud hole. Mr. Batot told the fellow as he was driving a Ford he could not pull him out but offered to do what he could. Mr. Wurzbach driving up on the other side of the mudhole Mr. Batot went over to consult him as to the best means of helping the fellow out of his trouble. While he was talking to Mr. Wurzbach the fellow fastened a chain to the Batot car and when Mr. Batot came back to his car he proceeded to take the chain loose. The fellow made for him with a club. Mr. Batot landed one, or rather gave the fellow a push, which landed him in the ditch, where he lay. Johnnie Barleycorn had already knocked him out. Mr. Batot and Mr. Wurzbach did their utmost to get the truck back on the road, but owing to their light cars could accomplish nothing and had to leave him. Heavy trucks later relieved the stalled truck.

THE GRASSHOPPER MENACE.

That the invasion of grasshoppers is assuming alarming proportions in Medina County is attested by the fact that 104 farmers from every section of the county assembled on the courthouse lawn last Saturday afternoon to listen to a lecture on grasshopper control and witness a demonstration of mixing poisoned bran mash by C. H. Gable, entomologist of the United States Department of Agriculture. The meeting had been called by County Agent C. M. Merritt, and the following had been appointed as leaders for their respective communities so that a systematic and concerted campaign of extermination can be waged against the voracious enemies:

Henry Batot, South Hondo, Ash. Gilliam, North Hondo, Aug. Spott, Upper Hondo, Alf. Zinsmeyer, D'Hanis, A. G. Ise, Kinchelee Prairie, Armin Bendele, Dunlay, S. H. Saathoff, Quili, Albert Bilhartz, Biry, J. W. Roberson, Devine, Wm. Santeleben, LaCoste, and Joe Burgin, Yancey.

Mr. Gable in his lecture recommended the following formula:

POISONED BRAN MASH.

By C. H. Gable.

Wheat Bran (not shorts) 100 pounds
White Arsenic 4 pounds
Banana Oil (Amyl Acetate Tech.) .8 table-spoons or 4 ounces
Blackstrap Molasses 2 gallons Water 10 gallons

This formula is on the basis of 100 pounds of bran and should be made up in the same proportions for greater or lesser lots. The above mixture is sufficient for poisoning from twelve to sixteen acres. Two dozen lemons or oranges added to the mixture by squeezing the juice into the water and afterwards grinding the peeling and pulp on a food chopper can be substituted for the banana oil but is more expensive and troublesome. For that reason the banana oil is preferable.

The arsenic can be mixed with the bran dry and the other contents poured on the poisoned bran, but on account of the dust blowing so freely, Mr. Gable prefers mixing the poison with the liquid ingredients first, stirring it well so as to hold it thoroughly in suspension while pouring the poisoned solution on the bran.

Mr. Gable's demonstration consisted of mixing a quantity of this mash and sowing it broadcast over the courthouse lawn in the same manner as one would broadcast small grain, spreading it very thin. He used his naked hands in mixing the poison, but warned against any one doing so with abrasions of the skin or sores that would come in contact with the poison. He also warned his hearers to be careful, as they were dealing with deadly poison but said that when properly distributed neither poultry nor live stock could get enough of the poison to injure them.

After the demonstration, the meeting organized by electing O. E. Lacy, Chairman and Fletcher Davis, Secretary, and the following signed to apply the following amount poisoned mash as a starter in campaign:

Albert Bilhartz, 100 lbs. Heyen, 100 lbs. C. W. Gilliam, 100 lbs. H. R. Bailey, 100 lbs. E. Lacy, 300 lbs. H. W. Butts, 100 lbs. J. S. Fly, 100 lbs. R. L. Lacy, 100 lbs. O. E. Lacy, 100 lbs. Wm. Santeleben, 200 lbs. H. Frerichs, 100 lbs. D. W. Short, 100 lbs. S. O. Woods, 100 lbs.

Both drug stores sold out of arsenic before night, but have replenished their supply.

QUIHI NOTES.

Very appropriate Ascension services were held here last Friday. A large congregation assembled in the Lutheran church for the first part of the service, consisting of hymns, Scripture and a very suitable rendition by church choir were had. From church the congregation repaired to the nearby cemetery where hymns were sung, where the pastor of the church and Rev. A. F. Berg of Hondo spoke relative Christ's ascension and the "Hope of Eternal Life" and where a number of ladies sang a very touching hymn. The walks in the cemetery were nicely cleaned for the occasion and many graves were decorated with flowers.

Last Thursday afternoon a ladies aid society was organized in the Lutheran church. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. C. P. Hanks, president; Mrs. Emil Graft, secretary and Mrs. Carl Grell, treasurer. Next Thursday at 2:30 P. M. the society will hold its first regular meeting in the old Lutheran church. Regular meetings will be held after on the First Thursday of each second month.

The next Luther League program will be given on the night of June 15th. Besides special selections the church choir, the following members have been announced: Readings by Miss Emma Bruckner, Messrs. Alvin Balzen and Alf. Saathoff. Musical numbers by Miss Bertha Oeffinger, Annie Schaefer, Ida Mae Saathoff and Mr. Ed. Grell. A lecture, "Noah's Offering and God's Promise", by the pastor.

SELLS-FLOTO SHOW PEOPLE ACQUIRE 5,000-ACRE BLOCK FOR A TEST.

Medina County, which jumped into prominence some months ago as a possible oil territory when the Ina Oil Company brought in its discovery well, and sagged back for a time later on, is coming to the front again with the promise that there will be a widely distributed wildcat drilling campaign. The area that seems destined to get the most play, so far as the activity thus far evident would indicate, is the strip from the south-eastern corner of the county to the western part of the Southern Pacific tracks, where the California-Medina is waiting to make a test in its No. 1 hole and has locations made for two others.

Latest to enter the county is the Sells-Floto Show people who have acquired a 5,000-acre tract with a location made on survey 443, belonging to the heirs of Lewis Hearst. The tract is north of the town of D'Hanis and north of the Odell, Haupt & Bond test, which is now down some distance and is said to promise to make a well. The Sells-Floto tract is adjoined on the west by acreage belonging to the California-Medina interests and north of that two big blocks have been taken by private individuals on which deals are pending but not closed.

There is a location on the Finger tract (survey 256), just south of the Southern Pacific tracks and about midway between D'Hanis and Hondo, on which Rhodes-Wharton are to drill, and straight south of Hondo a distance of a little over four miles, on an arm of the J. Bailey survey No. 175 1/2, Carson et al., who drilled a 4,200-foot test at Lampasas, have made a location and it is reported will have the tools on the ground for a test within 30 days.

It is reported that the Magnolia, Texas and Sun among the big companies have taken acreage north of the Odell, Haupt & Bond test on the Rothe tract.

Metzger, on survey 758, about seven or eight miles southwest of the Ina field, is drilling, and a few days ago was down around 530 feet.

Williams Oil Company, on survey 104, on the Moebius tract, northwest of the Ina well about two miles, has been fighting mud for some time and is carrying the eight-inch casing down with the hole. The drill was working in a formation that caved badly and made progress slow. The depth was 450 feet by the middle of the week.

In the southeastern corner of the field the latest development is the taking of a block of acreage east of Devine by Edwards and associates of Dallas, with arrangements to drill a well at once. Witherspoon has spudded in on the Caleb Kemp survey, northwest of Devine, the location of the well being a little south of the center of the tract, and the contract calling for drilling 50 feet into the Edwards lime.

Brown of the Ina Oil Company is reported blocking out some acreage south and west of Dunlay on the Southern Pacific. The Mid-Kansas has a block of acreage from Dunlay south along the Southern Pacific tracks and the Brown block lays just west of this.

Rydal Oil Company is completing the first of four wells on the Ina Oil Company acreage, the location being on the west side of the Hondo River.—Sunday's Express.

STOP THAT BACKACHE!

Many Hondo Folks Have Found the Way.

Is a dull, nerve-racking backache wearing you out? Do you feel older and slower than you should? Are you tired, weak and nervous; find it impossible to be happy, or enjoy the good times around you? Then there's something wrong and likely it's your kidneys. Why not get at the cause? Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Your neighbors recommend Doan's. Read what this Hondo resident says:

O. H. Getter, retired painter, says: "I was taken with a terrible backache and my kidneys acted irregularly. On stooping it was an effort for me to straighten again. Nights I had to get up frequently to pass the kidney secretions, which were scanty, highly colored and scalding. I felt tired and worn out all the time and had no ambition. After taking two boxes of Doan's Pills, my back was strong and my kidneys acted regularly."

CALOMEL GOOD BUT TREACHEROUS.

Next Dose may Salivate, Shock Liver or Attack Your Bones.

You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your system like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

Don't take Calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tonic straightens you up and you feel great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.

IN THE HANDS OF THE CRITICS.

Many books and magazines and pamphlets come into a news-paper office during the course of a year. Some are saved and some are not, but one received by San Antonio Express the other day has been saved.

It is a book about the public schools of Medina County, and is just a plain story of each district, with a picture of the buildings, and the names of the teachers and the trustees with now and then, a word of encourage-ment for work which the county superintendent knows has been done. The pictures of some of the school buildings are not very attractive, the book makes no literary pretensions, and scattered through its pages are advertisements, some of them set in quaint, old-fashioned type that was in style 50 years ago.

But the book is a valuable one. It is a little epic on getting the beginnings of an education in a farm- ing and stock-raising community of Southwest Texas in the third decade of the twentieth century. It shows, among other things, the salaries being paid to the teachers of Medina County's rural schools, and the trustees have no reason to be ashamed of the figures. They would have been big salaries in any State 10 years ago, and are very creditable to Texas now.

More than that, the book is valuable because it is circulating among the parents of the boys and girls going to Medina County's schools, and is giving them the foundation for an intelligent interest in educa- tion. We cannot rouse much interest in something about which we have few facts, but the Medina County book bristles with facts, and every school patron, reading those about his district and other districts, will have his personal interest in the entire system increased.

Then, too, the book will be cher- ished by the boys and girls them- selves in later years. Many a suc- cessful business man today would give a five-dollar bill or more for a picture of the little country school he attended 50 years ago, and the roll of the pupils. Not all of Medina County's schools are one-room frame buildings—far from it; for Devine, Brikka, Hondo and D'Hanis have brick and stone buildings to compare with the best in large cities, but the pupils from the humblest 'schools are likely to be the ones who will appreciate the pictures and the write- up most.

Perhaps the greatest value of the little book is its encouragement to pupils, teachers and trustees. Not all of us ever achieve getting our names into a book, even a report on the county school system, but some- how one's name in type is a stimu- lus to self-respect. No doubt, some of the teachers listed in Me- dina County's book will be among the State's leading men and women a few years hence, and a boy or girl who attended a school that was praised in the book could hardly go out into the world and do something that would dim the reputation of that school. More likely they will be spurred to doing something that will bring it fame.

The example of Medina County in publishing a complete story of its schools with pictures and names is one that can be followed profitably by other counties. With every citizen of every county informed in such a way he cannot fail to take an interest in it, the future of South- west Texas would be on a founda- tion even more solid than the rocks on which so many little school houses have been built.—San Antonio Ex- press.

The above criticism is every bit deserved—from the most flattering reference to the dig at our old type. We knew when we dug into the dust of our older type cases that some of the old timers of the printing fraternity would recognize a few faces of ancient vintage, but it was necessary that the entire book be in type complete before we began printing and that our regular job and news printing be carried on at the same time unhampered. This we accomplished—a feat few country shops could do even with all of their ancient type faces in use. After we have squared accounts with Col. Mergenthaler and get our Model 8 equipped with all of its modern ap- pliances we will not have to use much case type of any kind—and hope then to have every thing suf- ficiently modern to appeal to the artistic eye of the Express—Editor.

ALTO FRIO BAPTIST ENCAMP- MENT.

July 4 To 13, 1924.

This Encampment is situated in the picturesque Frio Canyon, two miles from Leakey, county seat of Real county, and at an elevation of about two thousand feet. The grounds consist of seventy-five acres, through which flows the Frio river in a clear, dashing mountain stream. The Frio Canyon, cool and shady, with its wonderful scenery and fine fishing, offers an ideal place for a summer outing.

The Baptist people are sparing no pains to make Alto Frio one of the greatest Encampments of the South. God laid Frio Canyon out on a big scale. Little plans and little enter- prises do not fit into it, and are out of place. With this in mind the Encampment Board does things on a big scale. As an example of this, a free barbecue dinner will be given on the opening day of the Encamp- ment, July 4th. Preparations are being made to accommodate eight thousand persons on this date. As another example, persons coming during the entire ten days will be met at Sabinal and carried in autos to the grounds, forty miles distant.

The program of course is in every way in keeping with the great plans and majestic surroundings of Alto Frio. No speaker or instructor is given a place on the program simply as a courtesy. Men and women have been selected who have worth-while messages. This program has been so arranged as to meet the needs of all people, from the little child- ren to the aged.

Mr. W. T. Mitchell of San Antonio is President of the Encampment; Mr. Fred S. Hall, San Antonio, Secretary- Treasurer; Rev. S. M. York, Sabinal, Business Manager; Rev. Walter T. Davis, San Antonio, Chairman of Program Com.; Rev. Bruce Roberts, Eagle Pass, Chairman of Publicity. A card addressed to Rev. Roberts will bring full information as to routes, camping privileges, program, etc.

HONDO HAS ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL INVENTOR.

During the almost two score years this paper has served the people of Medina County, it has been privileged several times to chronicle the success of Medina County mechanical geniuses. It has the pleasure of adding another to the long list. Ed Cameron recently secured a patent on what he calls an Automatic Cotton Press Dog. It is a mechanical attachment for cotton presses which holds the cotton down to the press while it is being blown to the press from the gins and the press is being filled preparatory to pressing and tying the bale. The success of packing and holding the fluffy lint in the press box until it is filled with enough lint to make a bale has ever been a laborious process and gin men will welcome its attachment that will lighten and facilitate this work.

That Mr. Cameron's invention is proven success is attested by the fact that the San Antonio Machine Supply Co. last week took over the right to manufacture and sell the Dog on a royalty basis. This is an old established company with strong financial backing and it is without saying that the invention will be pushed for all it is worth.

This paper joins Mr. Cameron's friends in congratulations on his success and wishes for him a profitable sale of his invention.

The funeral services were held at the Holy Cross church, conducted by Rev. F. Maas. Interment was made at the Catholic Cemetery. A large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends followed the remains to their last resting place.

The entire community joins in the sympathy for the grief stricken family.

ORGANIZE BASE BALL TEAM

With Bill Windrow as manager, and Sham Holloway as captain, a base ball team was organized in Hondo this week. Hondo has always had a strong team in the field, but with the material now available we predict that one of the best teams that ever wore a Hondo uniform will afford entertainment for lovers of the national game this season. Hondo never was in better shape in the way of material and with the necessary practice there is no doubt that the supremacy of our town will be maintained during the season just now opening. O. H. Miller, with his usual liberty, has uniformed the team and everything is in readiness for a season of first class sport.

The opening game will occur on the fair grounds diamond next Wednesday afternoon, June 4th, when our team will have the D'Hanis team as opponents. D'Hanis has a strong team and a good game awaits sport lovers. It is hoped our people will loyally support our team by patronizing the games, as there is considerable expense in maintaining a winning team in the field. Then, too, the presence of a large crowd of sympathizers and rooters puts pep into the players, and if our team does not develop into a winning one it will be the people's fault and not the fault of the boys appearing in the Hondo uniforms. Do your part by attending the games.

"I want John Smith at Blank & Co., Dallas"

And the operator passes the word to her associates to get JOHN SMITH on the line. Long Distance has received orders for a particular person and it is her job to get that particular person--no one else will do.

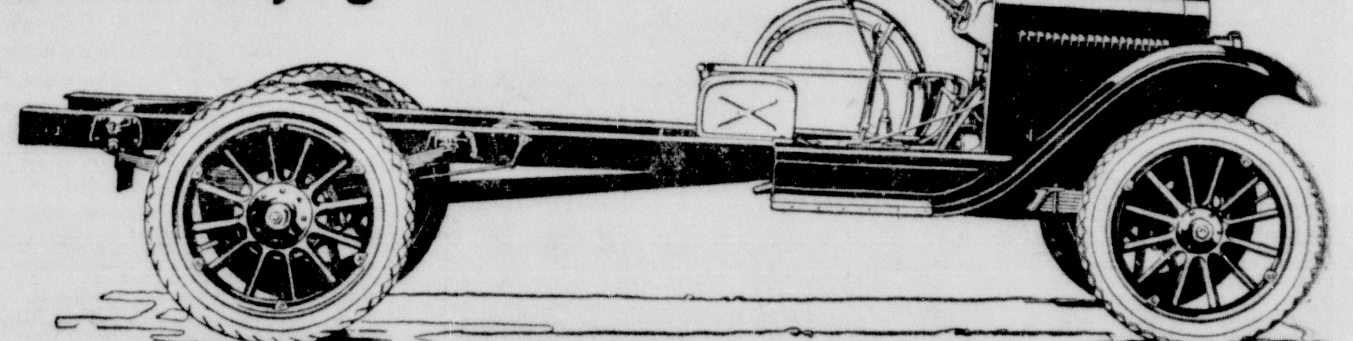

Of course, it requires more operating time, greater use of toll lines, and if repeated efforts are necessary before getting Mr. Smith on the line, it ties up considerable equipment. Hence a higher rate is charged than on Station-to-Station calls.

Person-to-person calls may be placed collect at the distant point if the necessary permission for the reversal can be secured from the called party.

NATALIA SCHOOL, DISTRICT 9.
NATALIA DISTRICT NO. NINE
(P. O. Natalia, Texas.)

From Directory, Medina County Public Schools.

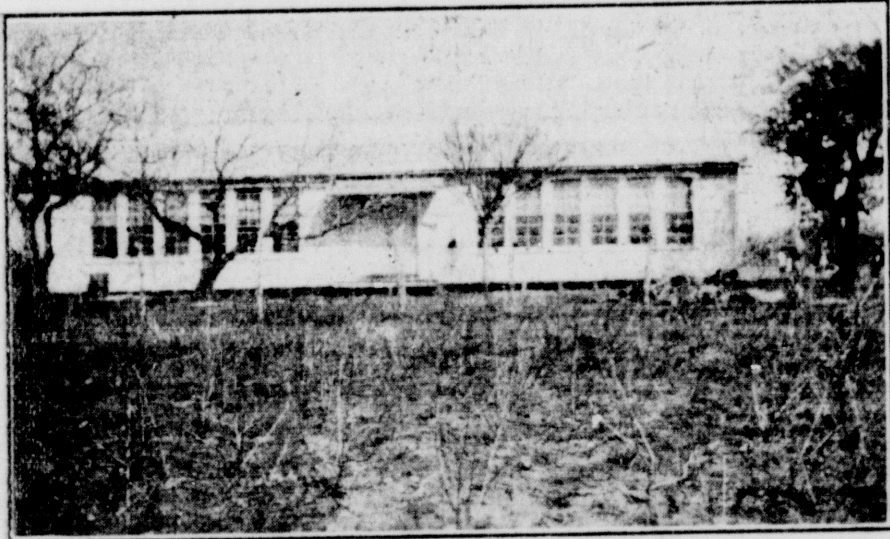

The Natalia District is situated in the extreme southeastern part of Medina County. The I-G. N. R. R. and the Meridian Highway pass diagonally through the district. This is a consolidated district and was effected in 1912 by the consolidation of Districts Chicon, Mustang and part of the Coal Mines. Most of these lands are now owned by the Medina Valley Irrigation Company. It comprises over 150,000 acres. The soils vary from black waxy to sandy loams. The soil is very productive and by means of gravity irrigation the entire district can be transformed into gardens equal to and better than the ones found in the "Valley". The pecan planted in this section thrives and promises big returns. Truck is cultivated extensively. Rice, spinach, onions, tomatoes, potatoes, beets, watermelons, in fact anything that grows, is successfully raised. The Melton Onion Farms, the largest in the United States, are located in this irrigation district.

Most of the people in this section are renters. The home owners are progressive and enterprising. They are longing to see the day when the lands of the company will be placed on the market. It means greater opportunities for every one.

The school building conforms to the modern type in every particular. It is a two story brick building and has six rooms. The equipment is complete. The school runs a truck for the transportation of the children. The trustees look well after the interests of the school. They are Mr. J. H. Spivey, Mr. J. W. Heath and Mr. H. D. Jones.

Teacher	Term, 8 months	Salary	Certificate
Mrs. Fred Bowman,		$120.00	First Grade
Miss Ethel Grant,		$ 95.00	First Grade
Miss Lucille Stroud,		$ 80.00	First Grade
Miss Gladys Thompson,		$ 80.00	First Grade

The teachers have made application to the State Department for classification. The school is doing effective work through ten grades. Tax rate 50c.

SHOOK SCHOOL, DISTRICT 10.
SHOOK DISTRICT NO. TEN
(P. O. Devine, Texas.)

Shook District is located about twenty miles south-east of Hondo, and six miles north of Devine on the Hondo-Devine Highway. The soil of most of the district is red sand especially adapted to the raising of cotton. Grain crops are also successfully raised. The citizens of this section are mostly English-Americans, though there are a good many German-Americans who trace their ancestry to the early Castro Colony. There is a strong tendency on the part of the parents to transfer their children of the upper school grades to Devine Independent where they have access to an affiliated school.

This school was a one teacher school until 1922 when the board erected a new modern building and placed two teachers in charge. The work extends through nine grades. Consolidation of District No. 8 with Shook would make a splendid rural high school. The character of the roads is such that it might be good business for District No. 8 to discontinue its school and transport all the children to Shook. It costs more to maintain No. 8 than it would to provide transportation to Shook.

The school has quite a good many community activities. A strong literary meets each month. The programs are interesting and instructive. The farmers co-operate with the county agent, and are enthusiastic in their efforts at better farming.

The present board of trustees are: Mr. P. S. Keller, Mr. D. H. Griffin and Mr. P. A. Huegele. They are an untiring board, ready at all times to give the school the best that can be had.

The equipment of the school is complete. The library compares with those of much larger schools.

Teacher	Term, 8 months	Salary	Certificate
Miss Faye Foster,		$80.00	First Grade
Miss Lois Webb,		$65.00	Second Grade

Scholastics 99. Enrolled 23. Local tax 50c.

BIRY SCHOOL, DISTRICT 11.
BIRY DISTRICT NO. ELEVEN.
Schools Nos. One and Two (P. O. Devine, Texas.)

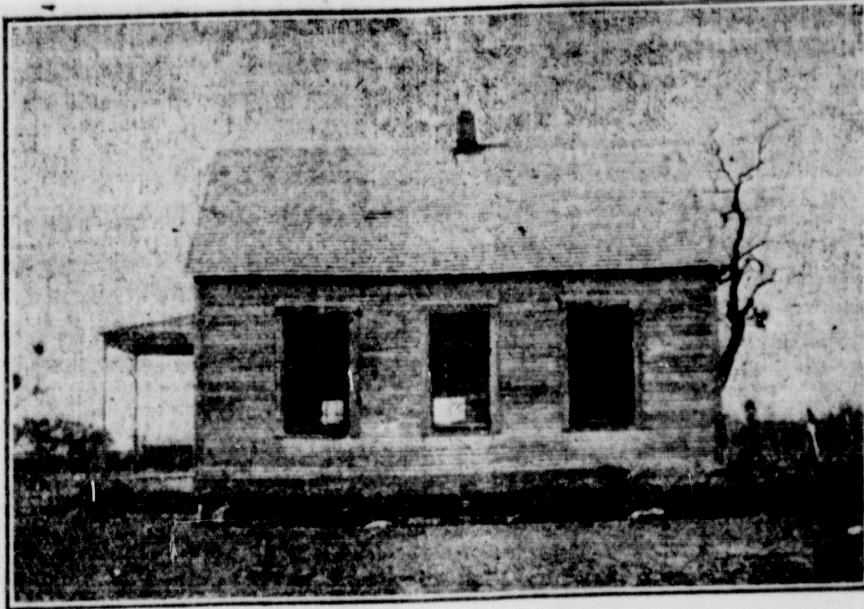

Biry District comprises about twenty-five square miles of varied territory. The extreme northern part is black, the southern part is sandy. The surface is broken. Huajillo Hills transverse the northern and southern parts of the district. The black lands of the Hondo Valley and the sandy valleys between the hills are very productive. The main occupation, is farming. This section is especially adapted to corn and small grains. Much of the arable lands are still used for pasture. Cattle raising is carried on extensively. At present there is considerable excitement over the oil situation. Several wells have been brought in. A number of rigs are sinking wells. A pipe-line has been surveyed to Devine and also to Hondo. The Oil field is situated south of the Elstone and west of the Devine structure.

The majority of the people have modern homes and well equipped farms. The Mexican renter in this section is a problem that needs to be solved. Too many of the farms are not kept up as an ideal farm should be. This is a splendid place for the forward-looking homeseeker and community builder with children to educate.

At present the board maintains two schools. The school in the western part of the district has one teacher and offers seven grades. The other school maintains a two year high school. Graduates from this school find no trouble in entering the affiliated schools in the cities.

The High School building conforms to modern plans, the other one does not. Both schools are fairly well equipped. The High school should have better library facilities and laboratories for elementary science and industrial work for boys and girls.

A Parent-Teachers Association would help to unify the school spirit.

REDUS SCHOOL, DISTRICT 11.

and a strong community league would help in arousing interest for a better and stronger community.

The present board of trustees are: Mr. Albert Bilhartz, Mr. J. A. Watson and Mr. Henry Mussmann, who give unexcelled attention to their duties and under whose supervision the school work is progressing satisfactorily.

Teachers	Term, 8 months	Salary	Certificate
Miss Lucy B. Curd,		$100.00	First Grade
Miss Altha Van Fleet		$ 75.00	Second Grade
Miss Georgie Schmidt,		$ 75.00	Second Grade

Scholastics 120, enrolled 50. Local Tax voted 50c, levied 25c.

CHILDREN ARE LEARNING WHAT THEY SHOULD EAT

CLASSES IN AMERICAN SCHOOLS AID IN IMPROVING JUVENILE HEALTH.

Red Cross Instructing Mothers and Teachers as Well as Pupils in Fight Against Malnutrition.

Actual tangible results in the way of improved health due to instruction in proper food and general health habits are being shown in two Red Cross Nutrition "Health Builders" classes in the St. Joseph Mo. schools. These classes are composed of children not actually in the school, but who come to the school to get milk, and of others who are in the kindergarten. Practically every time the class meets new children join. One of the classes is composed of children six to eight years of age, the other of children eight to twelve years. Each "Health Builder" class lasts for an hour and is held once each week after school hours. The children are so interested in their work that they have to be almost driven home when the closing time comes.

The Red Cross nutrition work, which is part of the general health campaign being carried on by the American Red Cross in schools all over the United States, is planned as a special effort to correct the great percentage of malnutrition among American children. According to health experts and social workers, it has been found that one-third of the children of America are undernourished. This malnutrition comes as often from the wrong kind of food as from insufficient food, and, therefore, is as prevalent among children of the rich as among the children in the poorer classes. Nutrition classes, which are under the Red Cross supervision, teach the mothers of the children, as well as the children themselves, the nutrition value of certain articles of food and endeavor to induce the children to eat the right rather than the wrong kind of food.

A set of health rules, known as the "Health Creed," has been formulated and is in the way of a contest with charts and record cards which the children keep up and post each week on their schoolroom walls. This keeps them alive to the plan and has been very effective in reducing the percentage of malnutrition.

At each meeting of a nutrition class the children are weighed and a record is kept on the growth chart, so as to see how much each child has gained during the week. The child who makes the greatest gain during the week has a special star. Other stars also are given for other achievements. A gold star is won by drinking three glasses of milk every day. A blue star, by sleeping with the windows open every night. A silver star is the reward for not drinking tea or coffee, and a red star for brushing the teeth three times a day.

About 15 minutes of instruction regarding health and food precedes health games, songs and plays at every class session. The children are given lessons in health building in an indirect way, so that it actually becomes a game and, therefore, impresses itself more strongly on their imagination.

In the nutrition classes for mothers more advanced instruction in food values and general health is given, and the mothers are urged to study the question of proper foods for children of all ages. Mothers always seem greatly interested in these sessions and attend the classes regularly. This is especially true in cases where classes were conducted for farmers' wives and women in rural communities, all seeming to welcome the opportunity of learning the scientific side of the diet question.

The Red Cross maintains nutrition workers who go from chapter to chapter, establishing classes and following up certain lines of instruction which afterwards are carried forward by the teachers of the schools and the mothers of the children. At the end of a definite period—six months or a year—the nutrition worker returns and checks up on the results. In practically every case improvement in the health of the children, as well as in the general condition of the community health, is found.

SARCASTIC BOSS.

Smith is a young lawyer, clever in many respects, but very forgetful. He had been sent to a distant city to interview an important client, when the head of the firm received this telegram: "Have forgotten name of client. Please wire at once."

The reply received was a masterpiece of sarcasm, irony or something. It ran, "Clients name Jenkins. Your name Smith."—Lawyer and Banker (New Orleans)

SAME HERE.

A young lover and his love were attending church. When the basket was passed, the young man explored his pockets, and on finding nothing in them that would pass as money, he whispered to his sugar pie, "I haven't a red cent; I changed my pants." Meanwhile, the dainty flapper, who had been searching her handbag in vain, blushed a rosy red and said, "Same here."—Dyergrams.

AMERICAN RAILROADS ACTING WITH RED CROSS

GREAT SYSTEMS SENDING FIRST-AID CAR OVER LINES.

Campaign On in the Southwest to Reduce Number of Deaths From Accident.

The Rock Island Railroad system is co-operating with the American Red Cross in the seven states of the Southwestern Division of the latter organization, which are Arkansas, Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas, in teaching railroad men, factory employees, mining men and various kinds of industrial workers first-aid in case of accident, drowning, asphyxiation and other similar accidents due to the hazards of their occupations. A first-aid car with three Red Cross physicians and all necessary appliances for giving first-aid, as well as for instructing others in this art, has been placed on the Rock Island system under the direction of the American Red Cross.

This car left St. Louis May 13th and now is in Missouri. It will go from Missouri to Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Arkansas, New Mexico and Colorado, in the order named, continuing in the division until the first of September, and will visit as many towns and industrial communities as possible in the three and one-half months between now and September 1st.

The Rock Island is the third railroad to thus co-operate with the Red Cross during the present year. The others were the Baltimore and Ohio, and the Chicago-Great Western railroads.

The Red Cross First-Aid Demonstration Car, as it is called, is part of the system of instruction in first-aid, which is one of the activities of the American Red Cross. The purpose of this and of several other activities of the Red Cross, notably the life-saving service, is to prolong the life of the citizens of this country by lessening the danger of serious consequences from accidents.

Wherever this car goes the physicians who are in charge of it visit the principal civic and business organizations as well as the industrial plants, giving talks and demonstrations, and at the same time rendering any service which may be possible during their stay. Occasionally they are called upon for the use of their apparatus, as well as their system in resuscitation from asphyxiation and drowning, and to assist in caring for victims of explosions and similar catastrophes of a more or less serious character, which constantly are occurring in all industrial communities.

The First-Aid Service is one of the twelve services by which the American Red Cross seeks to carry out its motto, "I Serve," to the people of America. The other services are: Nursing Service, Public Health Nursing, Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick, Life-Saving, Home Service, Volunteer Service, Production Service, Canteen Service, Nutrition Service, Disaster Service, and Junior Red Cross Service.
